Two Teachers for Zone Bill Praised at Playground Meeting

Board also Discusses Regulations with L. M.

Plans to put the playground in immediate operation for the children of the community were completed at the meeting of the Narberth School Board held this week.

The Board voted to employ two competent supervisors to be on duty during the summer months, and to have charge of the recreation of the children who will use the field. The plans were formulated in cooperation with Burgess Metzger and President of Council Hall who were present at the meeting.

The two teachers who will be in charge are Raymond L. Fite and Mary Vennell. Mr. Fite will have supervision over the activities of the boys from the fourth grade up, and Mrs. Vennell of the girls and younger children.

Mr. Fite was in charge of the Physical Training work in the woodlawn, N. J., schools for some time, and last year was assistant coach at Bowdoin College, Maine.

Miss Vennell has been director of Physical Training at Audubon, N. J., for the past three years.

The two supervisors will be in charge on the field beginning next Monday morning. They will be in charge from 9:30 to 12:30 and from 1:00 to 4:00 daily, except Wednesday and Saturday afternoons. These days the field is in use by the ball team.

The teachers have assisted in the choice of equipment for the playground, and this equipment will be ready when the work begins Monday. The school board is paying the salaries of the new teachers, in addition to defraying the cost of the equipment.

The Recreation Board will meet next Monday to discuss the problems arising in connection with the work, and to approve any recommendations made by the supervisors.

To Seek Co-operation

The Board discussed at some length the recent editorial in "Our Town," criticizing the lack of courtesy on the part of the Lower Merion authorities in ignoring the Local Board and Principal when the Narberth pupils graduated.

A review of the whole arrangement governing the merging of the Narberth High School with the Lower Merion institution showed that the agreement made absolutely no provisions for any contact other than of business.

Narberth, it appears, agrees to pay a certain sum per head for the pupils entered at the Ardmore School, and makes provision for transportation, but in every respect the arrangement is a business one.

Realizing the danger of this lack of an educational contact between the two schools, the Board appointed Principal Wilson as a committee of one to confer with Superintendent Downs of the Lower Merion Schools. He is requested to go into the entire situation with Mr. Downs, and to formulate an agreement covering all phases of the educational contact.

Subjects so far unprovided for, which will be taken care of are: Marking of pupils; deficiencies in individual pupils; honor students; monthly or quarterly reports; systematic visitations; and an adjustment of the curricula which will prevent the loss of credits by Narberth students in entering Lower Merion.

The conference, briefly, is to go into every problem pertaining to the educational development of the students of Narberth, individually and as a group.

When formulated, this agreement will be submitted to the two School Boards for discussion and approval, and, if placed in operation, promises to adjust many of the annoying features of the combined arrangement which showed in this year's work.

THE MESSAGE OF THE STARS AND STRIPES

The Union Twilight Meeting will be held tomorrow at 7:30 P. M., on the lawn of the Methodist Church; if stormy, in the Methodist Church.

There will be special music by a children's chorus conducted by Mr. Peter Stam, Jr., who will preside at the organ. Members of the American Legion will be present as well as of other patriotic societies. Rev. John Van Ness, minister of the Presbyterian Church, will deliver a sermon on the theme, "The Message of the Stars and Stripes." All are cordially invited.

Citizens Approve of New Borough Measure

Unqualified approval of the new zoning law for the Borough was expressed at the special meeting of Council held Monday night to give the bill a hearing.

Over forty interested citizens attended to hear the bill discussed. The crowd was so large that it was impossible to hold the meeting in Council Chamber, and the Clubroom of the Fire Company was borrowed for the occasion.

President of Council Hall read the bill, section by section, carefully explaining its features and provisions. There were many questions and much discussion. Most of the questions had to do with the effect of the new regulations upon each person's own property.

There was particular approval of the provision which will turn over any inequalities or hardships which the rules might inflict to a Board of Adjustments, which will be appointed when the bill becomes law. The Board will consider special cases, and will apply the necessary heaven of common sense to the general provisions.

The bill as written is purely protective. It specifically states that it is not retroactive, and will not in any sense interfere with present structures or uses.

Following the reading of the bill, several citizens spoke in high praise of the painstaking work of the Zoning Commission and of Borough Council. It was the general feeling that, considering the difficulties attendant upon the establishment of any such set of rules, a nearly perfect document has been made.

J. C. Simpson, of 232 Essex Avenue, was particularly strong in his praise. Mr. Simpson was a Councilman for nine years, and the President of that body for two years. He said that the only regret was that the matter had not been taken up years ago.

The bill will come up for final consideration on July 14th, at which time it is practically certain that it will receive passage and approval by the Burgess.

NEW GOLF COURSE

Local golf enthusiasts have shown considerable interest in the recently announced plans of the Philadelphia Country Club to extend their grounds greatly into the eastern part of Lower Merion Township.

The present grounds are located at Bala, and the new grounds acquired constitute several large properties, overlooking the Schuylkill Valley and miles of surrounding country.

The club, it was stated, purchased from the estates of Frederick P. Bailey and Clement A. Griseom a tract of 1800 acres on which to lay out an eighteen-hole golf course and to erect a clubhouse. The price for the land was $126,000.

The tract comprising the Griseom and Bailey properties and two smaller acreages, is on a plateau overlooking the Schuylkill and about four miles from Ardmore. The club will spend about $500,000 in modernizing its present house at Bala, in addition to the sum needed for the golf course, landscape work and buildings to be erected on the new tract.

The project was approved by the Board of Governors on June 16. The undertaking will be financed by subscriptions from club members. It will take three years to build the new course, which will be perfect in every detail.

At the meeting of the governors were Ralph E. White, chairman of the Golf Finance Committee, and other officers. Samuel W. Cooper, president of the golf association in the club, outlined the plans, pointing out that the present club grounds were within the city limits and, being on the city plan, were thus under city jurisdiction.

Membership entrance fees were increased from $250 to $350, and there was authorization for the admission of 300 more persons to membership. That will be done gradually. The architect for the course has not been selected.

Main Line Choral is Launched

Local Society Prominent in New Body

The much-discussed project of the merging of the several choral organizations of Main Line towns took concrete form on Monday evening last at Bryn Mawr, when the delegates from a number of societies brought favorable responses to the letters which had been sent to each by the Organization Committee. Coupled with the reports of the attending delegates was the voice of approval from bodies which were unable to send representatives, and taking all things together the Organization Committee knew beyond question that the undertaking had the enthusiastic backing of all those who have heretofore been working in separate groups for the advancement of good local music on the Main Line.

Accordingly, with Mr. H. L. Reinhold, Jr., acting as temporary chairman, a vote was given that the amalgamation be made. This was done on June 30, 1924, the Main Line Choral, and thus came into actual being a new body whose interests are those of the Main Line as a whole, whose object is to foster in the Main Line as a whole the love of good music, a wider appreciation and enjoyment of its beauties, and whose influence will be directed constantly towards a broader general feeling of fellowship among Main Line communities.

Subject to the approval of all the active members of the combined groups at a general meeting later to be arranged, certain details of operation were discussed but for the sake of brevity will not all here be dwelt upon. Suffice it to say that Monday evenings were designated as rehearsal time (place as yet undetermined) active participation will be open to all who like to sing, irrespective of training, a maximum of three annual concerts to be given, etc., all of which will in due course be submitted to active, associate and sustaining members, both present and prospective.

A point which needs special mention, however, is the fact that Mr. Wm. P. Bentz has been offered the directorship of the Main Line Choral, and his acceptance is confidently anticipated. This action will be particularly gratifying to members of the choruses in Ardmore and Narberth, all of whom have had opportunity as individuals to become acquainted with his exceptional ability as a musician, his forcefulness as a leader, and his attractive personality as a man. The Bryn Mawr and Wayne choruses know Mr. Bentz only by reputation, but that was such as to make them join in the feeling that he is exceedingly well qualified from all view points for the directorship of the Main Line Choral.

It was requested by Mr. Reinhold that a misunderstanding be cleared up with respect to the Melody Club of Ardmore. The impression has evidently been received from an earlier statement that the Melody Club as a whole intended to merge its identity with that of the Main Line Choral. As a matter of fact, this relates only to the chorus of the Melody Club, which is but a part of the entire organization, and the Melody Club as a whole will continue its separate work, which is in connection with all branches of musical activity.

BUSINESS CHANGES

Two Narberth businesses have recently changed hands. The first of these is that of the Narberth Realty Company. Mr. H. B. Pitts, formerly land appraiser, Bureau of Valuation, has purchased the business formerly conducted by Mr. Fred C. Patten, Postmaster.

The firm of Hewitt's, formerly of Philadelphia, has purchased the tailoring business of Charles Lukov on Haverford Avenue. In remodeling the store, the management collected several articles apparently left there by customers of the old regime. They include a pair of gold-buckled suspenders, some gloves and a travelling bag.

AN ESCAPED CONVICT

They were holding mid-year examinations in one of the public schools. The subject was geography. One of the questions was, "What is the equator?" "The equator," read the answer of a nine-year-old boy, "is a menagerie lion running around the center of the earth."

The FIRESIDE

Miss Elizabeth Goldsmith and Miss Carolyn Goldsmith, of Montgomery Avenue and Mill road, left June 29th for Pine Lake Camp, Pocomo, Pa., where they will spend the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lamorello and daughter, who are visiting in Baltimore, Md.

Miss Florence C. Hall left this week to spend a short time with her mother in Genesee, New York.

Mr. H. S. Roberts, and family, of Woodside Avenue, are spending the summer in Wildwood.

Mrs. W. W. Pierson and her sister, Miss Eva Armstrong, left this week for a motor trip through the Poconos and New England.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hatfield are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Harris, of Merion Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sidley are spending the Fourth at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Chappatte and family are spending the summer at Ocean City.

Professor Walter Steckbeck and family, of Wayne Avenue, have been spending several weeks at Wilming, N. C., where Dr. Steckbeck is collecting plants for the Botany Department of the University of Pennsylvania.

ONE LEGIONAIRE WRITES TO ANOTHER

Dear Peter:

Well, old timer, it's happened. I don't know what the result will be, but it's bound to be terrible. You know how I hate to see anyone disturbed—how I mourned my heart out as the doughboys, gobs, and leather necks persisted in provoking the poor thins from one position to another back in '17 and '18. You haven't been to meetings very regularly yourself, but even so you know the old Post has been filled with sleeping beauties—more sleeping than beautiful (except in the Auxiliary). Now they're about to be disturbed. The "Sparks" are already dying.

The cause of it all is that at the last meeting the Post elected a new bunch of officers where they should have put in a bunch of new officers (or should it be vice versa). Along about 9:15 a "spark" flew in and set the meeting on fire. Something was said that it would only burn six months 'till things warmed up, but between you and me and the rest of the world, there's likely to be such "hot times" in the meetings that the Post never will settle down to its peaceful slumbers again.

Well, the crowd sure went crazy. They could only think in terms of conflagrations. Now if the "Sparks" lay off for a meeting, it will be filled with "Burns Burne Burnes." I hate to "Crave" about the second vice commander, but he sure is some bird.

Then they "Dunne" (more material for a hot time) made the executive committee all "Wright." With that "hard wearing" Bergner included, the weary willies will "Nash" their teeth. They didn't have to go a "Long" way for a sergeant-at-arms.

Yes, Pete, I feel sorry for the Rip Van Winkles of the Post and for the strain on Elm Hall, as 200 waking veterans rock its walls with good fellowship humor and interesting discussion. But most of all I feel sorry for Harry Simpson. The poor boob has been laughing up his sleeve at the cinch he has had as post historian and now history is what the Post ain't gonna make nothin' else but. But it's an ill wind that doesn't blow the fleas off some dog, and with the increased membership our demon finance officer, John Mower, is likely to buy a Dagnar Car (apologies to John Wine).

Well, Pete, with the world-famous fire company of Narberth close by, I don't reckon any serious damage will be "Dunne" as the old Post sets the town on fire.

Stay home next Saturday for my next letter, and don't let on that I don't like the present officers of the Post. See you at the next meeting July 28th. You know me, Al E. Rabbit.

Petition Out for the Legion Post Back Street Paving of Celebration

To be Presented to Council This Month

Residents on all unimproved streets in Narberth are being given an opportunity to make in being the following petition which will be presented to a meeting of Council on the evening of the 14th:

WHEREAS, approximately 50 per cent of the streets in the Borough of Narberth have been permanently surfaced, guttered and curbed out of Borough funds in the past; and

WHEREAS, the continuance of this policy of street building out of our current revenues is now prohibited by statute; and

WHEREAS, a situation has developed which is working a serious injustice to those taxpayers whose properties are on unpaved streets; a condition which in appearance and inconvenience adversely affects the entire community, a consensus subject of agitated discussion, complaint and discontent which is detrimental to that co-operative spirit in community affairs without which steady community progress is impossible;

THEREFORE, we, the undersigned citizens of the Borough of Narberth, respectfully petition our Honorable Borough Council to ascertain the sum of money necessary to permanently surface, gutter and curb all the remaining unimproved streets, which in the opinion of Council are properly subject because of their ownership, location and width to be so improved and accepted by the Borough, and to submit to the voters on their ballots at the next general election a proposal to raise Borough bonds of a sum sufficient to improve those streets, as aforesaid, and to be devoted exclusively to that purpose.

Copies of this petition are now being circulated for signatures on Price, Conway, Forest, Woodbine and Upper Grayling Avenues. If residents on any other unimproved streets desire a copy of the petition for circulation, one can be obtained by telephoning to R. F. Wood (Narberth 1631).

This is the first concerted action which has ever been undertaken by all the residents on all unimproved streets. Previously each group has petitioned for relief separately and each one has failed before Council, due to the apparent impossibility of the different groups financing the work. This proposed bond issue would provide for all and end a situation which is continually embarrassing to Council and detrimental to the interests of the entire Borough.

"This citizens' movement for street improvement should not be considered as being hostile to the Community Center building project, for which a petition for a $100,000 bond issue is now in preparation," recently stated one of the petitioners. "The people on the unimproved streets simply think that such a large bond issue for a luxury project should not be contemplated without taking into consideration at the same time the pressing necessity for improved streets."

Mr. Wood reports that he has found among the residents on unimproved streets, some sentiment distinctly in favor of the Community building.

Mr. Gardell Simons, of Wynnedale Road, a member of the Philadelphia Orchestra, is spending the week end at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Bergner and family are spending the holidays at their cottage in Avalon, N. J.

Dr. Leroy A. King, of Grayling Avenue, and Representative Benjamin Ludlow, of Ardmore, have been appointed by Governor Pinchot to a committee to study appraisals and subsidies for education in the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Haws, of Dudley Avenue are in New York, where Mr. Haws has been attending the Democratic Convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Dunne were the guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy A. King at their camp on the Susquehanna.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Peeney, of Elm Terrace leave today for a motor trip to California.

Public Asked to Assist with Expenses

The celebration to be held on the new Playground on the night of the Fourth will be staged by the Legion. The fireworks display has been arranged for regardless of cost, because it was felt that it was high time that Narberth had a real blowout on this occasion. The Post is asking the citizens of our fair borough to come through with as much legal tender as possible to help defray the expenses. It has been estimated that the sum of one dollar per family could be raised without any financial crisis ensuing. With that end in view and for advertising purposes, a booth was erected on the corner by Chase's Drug Store where they hope to have a constant stream of wherewithal flowing inwardly.

The Post has taken every precaution that a good time will be had by all. They have even arranged for a First Aid Station on the field. This station is for worthy relief only—no one with snake bites need apply.

A recruiting tent has also been arranged where, it is expected, many of the estimated two hundred eligibles for the Legion will be ensnared by the doughty recruiting officers.

Judging by the load of lumber we saw on the way to the scene of the festivities, the display will be the well known last word in good taste and endless variety.

There have been scenes of feverish activity on the part of the Boy and Girl Scouts of late. It has been rumored that they are to take part in the ceremonies. We do know that the Boys have done legion service (that was not meant for a pun) in the distribution of many interesting handbills advertising the event. As to their drills, we had best save them as a surprise.

Our police force, both of them, will be present to lend a touch of color and harmony to the scene, and the Fire Company, resplendent in full uniform, will help maintain dignity and order.

The Choral Society has been prevailed upon to be present and that is a drawing card! Especially since they will be led by our versatile Legion Commander, Captain Sparks.

Now then, how about it? What more can we do? Why not drop around to the booth and leave any part of ten dollars with the fair collector and turn up at the show with a feeling of conscious pride of a job well done!

LEGION POST TO HELP WITH BONUS APPLICATION

Facilities for Taking Finger Prints Available

The nights of July 7th and 9th have been set aside by the Harold D. Speakman Post, No. 356, American Legion, to help ex-service men fill out the applications for adjusted compensation. These blanks are rather complicated and like all Army paper work must be filled correctly down to the last comma.

There will be a Post member well versed in paper work on duty at seven-thirty at the office of Robert J. Nash on the nights of July 7th and 9th. These services are rendered to all ex-service men whether they be Legion members or not, and it is hoped that as many turn out as possible so that the quota of Narberth and vicinity may be taken care of in these two nights.

HANSELL-McNELLY

A wedding of interest to local residents took place last Saturday when Mr. Charles J. Hansell, of Narberth, was married to Miss Laura Klemm McNelly, of Philadelphia, at the home of the bride. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Albert Kanzinger of the Ardmore Lutheran Church.

Mr. Hansell was born in this section, and has been a resident of Lower Merion all his life. For eight years during the Wilson administration, Mr. Hansell was the postmaster of Bala-Cynwyd, being succeeded by Joseph F. Dolan, Jr., the present postmaster.

The couple left after the ceremony for a trip to the Thousand Islands and Canada. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Hansell will reside on Anthwyn Road, Narberth.

On July 4th and 5th Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Lent and Jeannette will motor to Harpswell, Maine, where they will spend two weeks.

A LUXURY

At the zoning meeting Monday night, certain questions of the state government came up, during which President Hall remarked, "There are some Boroughs in the State—all broke."

To many of us, though, it may be poverty, but it is happy poverty. Things have a habit of getting done in a borough, which politics and sectional jealousy may hold up for months or years in a Township.

In the present case Narberth took up the zoning problem months after Lower Merion. Our bill is ready for passage; the Township measure is still filed up, waiting for the complicated adjustments and compromises necessary to take care of the many groups in Lower Merion.

It costs us more in taxes to stick by ourselves, it is true. There is constant agitation for a movement to get back under the wing of our parent township. There is much to say on both sides, but pride and the feeling of satisfaction at something accomplished about balances the expense.

Certainly our Borough is growing in strength and resources, and any local resident may well point with pride to his community.

NECESSITIES OR LUXURIES

To the Editor of "Our Town":

I have read with concern the article in last week's "Our Town," in regard to the steps being taken by the advocates of a Community Building to spend $150,000, and their desire to have Councils approve of a bond issue to cover $100,000 of the amount. I can not conceive that the right thinking voters of Narberth will ever approve of such a project, especially in view of our experience in not being able to make the Y. M. C. A. (a community building in every sense) a "go." If we must have a Community Building, can it not be an enlarged and improved Fire House, and thus have it convenient to the centre of the town and also benefit our Fire Company. Such an improvement could probably be done for a reasonable amount and not necessitate a bond issue.

The Community Building is a luxury; a bridge under the railroad at Essex Avenue with enlarged driveways around the station a necessity. Every resident of our town would directly benefit by such improvements, the necessity for which are becoming more acute every day, due to the traffic congestion along Haverford Avenue, and on the hill approaching the Narberth Avenue bridge where, when cars are parked on both sides of the street, there is only room for traffic in one direction.

A town located on the railroad is judged by its appearance around the station, and it is quite obvious that Narberth has about the poorest looking "front door" of any main line town near us.

Steward: "Where did you put them?"

Passenger: "In that little cupboard with the glass door to it."

WANT NEW BRIDGE

Efforts extending over many years for a new bridge at West Manayunk promise to reach a climax in the near future through the combined work of a number of residents of Lower Merion.

It is expected that the matter will be discussed and that impetus will be given the movement at the dinner to be tendered Mr. W. A. L. Barker, President of the Lower Merion Township Commissioners. The dinner will be held on the evening of July 15th at the General Wayne Inn.

Prominent Republicans of Lower Merion Township and the Borough of Narberth will be in attendance and a number of well-known speakers have been invited. These include Samuel T. Banahan, President of the City Club and of the Roxborough Civic Association; Frank L. Kenworthy, the Republican leader of the Twenty-first Ward, and a member of the Park Commission; and W. Fredland Kendrick, Mayor of Philadelphia.

The matter of the new bridge will thus be brought to the attention of officials of the Township, County and Philadelphia, as all three of these groups must co-operate if this much needed new span over the Schuylkill is to become a fact.

Mr. Seville Scholich, of State Road, a member of the Lower Merion Township Republican Committee, is a leader of the movement for the bridge. Other local residents taking an active part are Messrs. Wm. H. Stafford, Guyton T. Sheppard, R. H. Trumbull, Joseph M. Bartz, Wm. H. Ambrose, John Jacobs, A. T. Baker, and H. F. Morris.

Another improvement now under way which will have considerable effect upon the plans for the new bridge is the cutting through of a new road connecting Belmont Avenue and Ashland Avenue.

The new highway is being done by a cooperative arrangement between the Township, the County and the Reading Railway. The road is about a quarter mile in length, and its construction has necessitated the removal of a 50-foot bank of earth and rock.

Another contributing movement is the widening of Belmont Avenue near the present bridge. There is some talk of straightening this road also.

If the construction of a bridge to replace the present inadequate span can be accomplished in addition to the improvements now under way, it will be a great forward step for the lower end of Cynwyd, in addition to West Manayunk and Ashland Heights.

SCOUTS BUSY

The outstanding event of the week in scouting was the meeting of the Court of Honor for the Main Line district, which was held at Ardmore last Friday evening, for the first time in two years.

The meeting took place in the basement rooms of the First Presbyterian Church, and took the form of private examinations of the candidates by the judges. Several men prominent in local scouting affairs were numbered among the judges, among them Associate Commissioner Wilbur, the pastor of the Church and Mr. Forstall. 11 candidates from Ardmore presented themselves, three from Wynnewood troop, three from Bala Cynwyd troops and one from Bryn Mawr. Sixty-five badges were put out in all and fourteen boys passed in forty-one out of fifty-one subjects offered.

BOARDWALK SOON FROM INLET TO LONGPORT

After a long delay, contractors last week began rebuilding the Margate boardwalk, portions of which were swept away some years ago by heavy storms.

Workmen are now occupied in erecting new piling, rafting and decking on a strip between Thurlow and Union avenues. When the work is finished the walk will form a continuous link from Longport to Atlantic City.

Longport officials, it is said, have been considering rebuilding a portion of the walk above Margate, which has been wrecked by the sea.

Several residents of this community have summer homes in Margate and in Ventnor City, which adjoins Margate.

MOBE IDEALS NEEDED

Senator Stites Addresses Commencement

"In the battle of life a man is licked not from the outside but from within himself, so be masters of yourselves," Fletcher W. Stites, of Narberth, Senator from Montgomery County, told the 80 members of the 1924 graduating class of the Norristown High School at the commencement exercises last week.

"This is a golden day for you young people and in the years to come many happy memories will circle about this occasion," he continued. "For this class it is a graduation and a beginning. A graduation because you have gone through a course of vigorous training and a beginning because you are about to enter a broader road in the voyage of life. In steering your course it is essential that you be true to yourselves and unconquerable in your souls."

"Keep your working capital unimpaired. You are blessed with the vigor of youth and health, see that you do not lose this capital by neglect in the years to come. Beware of going bankrupt in health."

In speaking of the present day struggle between the material and ideal in life, Senator Stites said that both were needed for worthwhile citizenship.

"It is by industry and thrift," he said, "that the material things of life are acquired. Beware of laziness and waste. Save while you are young and you will gain a confidence in later years which brings success."

"In this age of the crazy and the sensational we need more ideals. We forget the fundamental principle of life and that the world is moved after all by spiritual power."

He spoke of the martyred Edith Cavell, the English nurse who was shot unjustly during the world war and whose tragic death aroused the whole world.

"It is more of her courageous spirit we need," he said.

The speaker also warned against selfishness.

VALUATIONS INCREASE

The big building boom in this section, which is still at the peak of its activity, has had a marked effect upon county real estate valuations.

The gross valuation of real estate in Montgomery county has increased nearly $9,000,000 in the last year, and, added by a one mill raise in tax rate, together with a substantial boost in occupation taxes, will net the county $1,829,222 more income than was available last year.

This was revealed by the official report of County Clerk Shandline, completed last week, and submitted to the authorities at Harrisburg.

The total amount of taxes estimated to be collected for 1924 is $591,741.88, as compared with $579,012.66 in 1923 under the two mill rate and with 4,292 less taxables.

Nearly everything has gone up but the value of horses and cattle reported. These show a marked decrease. Likewise, the omnibuses, cabs and hacks used for hire, which should be reported for tax, but they have dropped to an alarming degree, in spite of the increasing popularity of taxis and automobiles.

The total value of real estate, disclosed by the report, is $203,126,130, of which $20,333,365 is listed as exempt, leaving a balance of $182,792,765 upon which taxes may be levied. In the 1923 report, the gross amount of real estate values was set at $191,377,900, with exemptions of $18,697,590, leaving a balance taxable of $172,680,310. The net gain for the year is $7,022,455.

THE JUNE BULLETIN

New Books are of the Readable Variety

The monthly bulletin for June shows that the library has purchased for this month many interesting books for summer reading. Just a glance at the names of the authors is stimulating to any one who keeps in touch with current novelists. Even "Anonymous," whom is assigned the authorship of "The Great House in the Park" will be remembered by another book with a similar title which the library talked about but unfortunately was not able at the time to buy. "The House on Smith Square," Ada Barnett's name may be unfamiliar, but if one doesn't rebel at being asked to believe the unbelievable, here is an opportunity to become acquainted with a deliciously adventurous.

Another Sabatini, and a good one it is, with a Poole and a Pedlar and a Margaret Deland will prove good income producers for an equally attractive group of books next month.

The books listed here are all of the 1924 publication date which places them in the Rental Collection. Books in this collection are rented at the rate of ten cents a week or a fraction thereof and are the sole income of the library.

The list follows:

IN THE FOR LEAD

Narberth resumed its rightful place at the head of the Main Line League last Saturday by beating the Bala-Cynwyd team on the latter's grounds, 6-4. Cynwyd shares the premier honors, but the results of the Fourth of July games should break up that argument rather effectively.

The game with the twin-cities team was witnessed by a large crowd, who were treated to some first-class playing. Charlie Townsend shone on the mound for the Boroughites, being well backed up by good fielding and heavy hitting.

Gibson, with six assists to his credit, led the fielding. Gene Davis connected safely three times out of three, thus maintaining the average of .1000 for the day—not a bad record.

R. Voelkel lasted six innings on the mound for the Bala-Cynwydians, and then was relieved by his brother Harry.

It is said that Manager Nellings promised Fred Walzer flowers after the game, but according to all indications, he finally resolved to keep them himself.

It Was Terrible

On Wednesday night a desire for golf struck out local chasers, and Lehigh Valley became the victims. The sad story was thirteen to nothing.

George Bahb, erstwhile Bala-Cynwyd standstill, stood on the top of his lofty mound and peked off fifteen of the opposing hopefuls. To make it a full day he made two of the team's hits.

Dick Osborne wore the shin guards of the apple for two more safeties. One of them nearly got lost on Weymouth Avenue. Pop Fleck committed grand larceny to the extent of two bases.

Wertzback, of the victims, was the shining star. He talked two of their five hits and stole four bases.

Benefit Game Monday

Next Monday evening a benefit game will be played for Bill Humphries, one of the players who has been on the sick list.

Jack Murray's All Stars from Ardmore will be the attraction, and the game promises to be a good one. Both teams are playing without charge, so as to swell the fund.

A large attendance of fans is expected, for not only is a good game promised, but the cause is better yet and there is a real chance for the fund followers of the national past time to do a real service for a fellow temporarily out of luck.

Next Wednesday the Quaker City Travelers, a fast team from the city, will play in the twilight series.

MARTIN'S DAM TO BE CLOSED TO PUBLIC

Lovers of swimming at Martin's Dam will be interested in the club which has just been formed, to be known as the Martin's Dam Club, to operate in restricted fashion for the benefit of residents of that vicinity only.

The club has secured tenure on the property on a sublease from George R. Fox, the lessee, thereby obtaining complete control. A charter has been applied for with the following as in-

The club expects to have a swimming supervisor, who will also act as life guard and have full authority over the swimming. There will also be a caretaker and gateman, who will enforce the restrictions as to admission of members only and their guests.
